

IASIL

The International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

* RENEW BEFORE 30 APRIL TO RECEIVE SPRING ISSUE OF THE Irish University Review

In joining the widest international network of scholars in the field of Irish literary studies, full members of IASIL also receive the following benefits:

Two printed copies of Irish University Review delivered by post each year;

The opportunity to participate in and present at the annual IASIL conference;

Full access to the IASIL website and regular Irish Studies updates from us (we deliver a wealth of information about Irish literary studies directly to your email account; this includes conference and publication calls, job vacancies, and a wide range of international event notices);

The opportunity to have information circulated about your publications, conferences, and other Irish Studies events, in a variety of media including the IASIL website and Facebook page;

20% discount on all Edinburgh University Press books /10% discount on EUP journal subscriptions.

IASIL reserves the right to decline membership applications.

Name: _____

Postal address (please notify us with any changes)

Institutional affiliation: _____

email: _____

Membership Option (please circle your choice)

Ordinary 1 year €45 Ordinary 3 years €115

Student* (online access to IUR only) €20

*Early-career scholars please note: those of you within three years of doctoral graduation may avail of student membership rates.

Payment can be made by posting a cheque drawn on an Irish bank only to the Treasurer accompanied by this form. Cheques should be made payable to IASIL at this address:

Dr Tina Morin

Treasurer, IASIL

School of Culture and Communication

University of Limerick, Limerick, Ireland

Membership Fee (incl. currency)
Donation to Scholarship and Support Fund (if desired)
TOTAL PAYABLE	