

Appointment in Irish Literature
School of Irish Studies, Faculty of Arts and Science
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY, MONTREAL
Deadline: April 15, 2019

The School of Irish Studies at Concordia of University, Montreal, Quebec, invites applications for a Limited-Term Appointment in Irish Literature for the 2019/2020 academic year.

The successful applicant will be required to teach several undergraduate courses across a spectrum of Irish literary topics in the Fall and Winter semesters. This position will run from August 1, 2019 to May 14, 2020.

The School of Irish Studies offers a degree program in Irish Studies at the undergraduate level, as well as a Minor and Certificate in Irish Studies. Annually, twenty or more courses are offered in twelve disciplines, attracting a total enrolment of more than a thousand students. For more information on the School, go to www.concordia.ca/irishstudies.

QUALIFICATIONS

All applicants must possess a PhD in Irish literature. Preference will be given to candidates who can demonstrate evidence of teaching effectiveness.

APPLICATIONS

Applications should consist of the following items, in the given order, as a single PDF:

- a cover letter;
- a current curriculum vitae;
- a statement of teaching philosophy/interests;
- evidence of teaching effectiveness (teaching evaluations; syllabi; samples of student work).

The PDF should be sent to Matina Skalkogiannis, Assistant to the Principal at the School of Irish Studies (irishstudies@concordia.ca) with the subject heading Irish Studies LTA position.

Important: In addition, applicants must arrange for three letters of reference to be sent directly to same email address (Subject: Reference for [Candidate's Name]) or mailed to the department to arrive by April 15, 2019 and addressed to:

Dr. Michael Kenneally, Principal
School of Irish Studies
Concordia University
1455 de Maisonneuve West, H 1001
Montreal, Quebec H3G 1M8
Canada

Inquiries can be directed to Dr. Michael Kenneally (michael.kenneally@concordia.ca).

Review of applications will begin as they are received and will continue until the required positions have been filled. All applications should reach the department no later than April 15, 2019. Unfortunately, we are not able to consider incomplete applications.

Employment equity

Concordia University is strongly committed to employment equity within its community, and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff. The University encourages applications from all qualified individuals, including women, members of visible minorities, Indigenous persons, members of sexual minorities, persons with disabilities, and others who may contribute to diversification; candidates are invited to self-identify in their applications. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian and Permanent Residents will be given priority. To comply with the Government of Canada's reporting requirements, the University is obliged to gather information about applicants' status as either Permanent Residents of Canada or Canadian citizens. While applicants need not identify their country of origin or current citizenship, all applications must include one of the following statements:

Yes, I am a citizen or permanent resident of Canada

or

No, I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada.